Muhammad

We need your light more than ever

Muhammad

In this modern darkness

We need your light more than ever

The stones of ignorance still wound your gentle face

The swords of oppression still take your brothers

They burn your holy book and raze your houses of worship

But your name grows greater in more hearts and on more lips

Muhammad

We need your light more than ever

Muhammad

MUHAMMAD

In this modern darkness
We need your light more than ever

Your heart doesn't beat just for your followers
Your hope doesn't rest only on miracles
Your soul can't find peace in the heavens above
Until you've made Earth a place of faith and love

We keep fighting the devils, keep fighting this night
Longing for your son Mahdi to bring your light
One sunny day, we'll celebrate with all the world
We'll pray with him and Christ, and break all the swords

Muhammad
We need your light more than ever
Muhammad
In this modern darkness
